Mike Aulette:

- Parish mission has been going amazing!
- Busy weekend for the council with Fish Fry on Friday and Breakfast on Sunday – please reach out if you're able to help out or sign up through the Signup Genius links –
 - o Fish Fry <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0E44AFAD2AA6FAC43-47787275-lenten#/>
 - o Breakfast <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0E44AFAD2AA6FAC43-48035270-march#/>
- Bob Phipps will become the newest member, has signed the paperwork – will need to identify an exemplification date
- Fr. Dan suggested discussing the day's Gospel reading for the 15mins of any parish ministry meeting, would be good to incorporate

Todd Darling:

- Will need help for the Fish fry this Thurs night 6:30-8:00pm

Dan Cooke:

- Participated in the district free throw contest, they segmented by age and gender, was good to see how the district operates
 - o Idea to make the free throw contest a clinic to make it more of an outreach to showcase the school/ gym
- May plan to participate in the downtown Pinckney St. Patrick's Day bed race next year to increase awareness about the Knights

John Kukalis:

- Will send out a blast for Fish Fry/ Breakfast help this weekend
- Got another person to sign up for the 4th degree
- Only 21 signups so far for the St. Patrick's day dinner – please sign up if you haven't already and reach out to others
 - o Will get an announcement after Mass and will have two more weekends to get people signed up

Dave Esser:

- Next meeting we'll talk about golf, need to try and match the amount we got for sponsors last year
- The bank is working through acquiring credit cards through our accounts so we can use them for Breakfast/ Fish Fry expenses
- PNC – only have one uncleared check, would like to close them out prior to them leaving (April 1st)

Knight of the Month: Bill Peltier for all he's been doing for the fish fry's and breakfasts

Family of the Month: Scott and Amy Berry for their leadership and work at the fish fry's and breakfasts

Closing Prayer: Mike Aulette

Meeting Closed: 6:45 pm
