- Thanks to all those who helped with the pasties. We made 540 and will sell them at the breakfast this weekend.
- Cor with free breakfast is Saturday, October 3rd, 7:30 am free breakfast. Feel free to stay for Mass at 9 am. The topic is St. Francis; see the bulletin.
- Sunday is our first Community Breakfast. Please sign up if you can help. Even an hour helps. Cleanup is where we need the most help at about 10:30 AM to noon.
 - o <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/30E0444AAA723A3F58-65832138-breakfast>
 - o Have two to make omelets
 - o Will crack eggs and cut fruit on Saturday after Cor
- March for Life in downtown Pinckney, October 24th from 2-3 pm
 - o We would typically go to the Rite to Life Diner for Livingston County, it appears that we have a table reserved. Dave will follow up with Dale.
- This is the month of the Rosary – encourage everyone to pray it.
- Exemplification on October 18th after 11:30 Mass; we have four candidates

- Please keep Dale Pepper and the Powers family in your prayers, as well as all who are on our prayer list

Earl Blackburn

- Would highly recommend that people sign up to volunteer, as the sign-up was light Friday night
- Ended up having more than enough help and finished a bit early
- We strived to make 500 and made 540 – estimated profit to be ~$3k
- Next making session is October 16-17 – (need to verify the dates)

Knight of the Month: Paul Stahl for his help with the pasties

Family of the Month: Earl and Jan Blackburn for leading the pasty making

Closing Prayer: Andy Weisel

Meeting Closed: 7:55 pm

Respectfully submitted by Recorder Br. Paul X. Cassar
