Bills Paid Tonight

Grand Knight: Andy Weisel

- Please help for the Breakfast at link below.....all proceeds go to St Mary Food Basket Program - Food for Families. Flyer attached.
  Knights of Columbus/PTC: Breakfast Help - November 1 Breakfast
- Five new Knights on October 18 - see attached photo.... WELCOME to the Reifschneider family!
- We made over 1000 pasties at two weekend events; thanks to all that helped!
- We have almost 600 saint medals and 1000 rosaries out at downtown Pinckney Spooktacular on October 24. We also gave some candy at the end of the line. It was so much fun to see kids (and their parents) wanting saint medals.
- If you have Facebook and do not have access to our Knights page, ask me to invite you as we post regular updates.
- The stove was fixed – note: guidance not to turn the burners off
- Cor is the 7th of November, beginning at 7:30 am

Pasties: Earl Blackburn

- Sold about ~450 so far, so we're well on our way
- Will sell after Mass in the coming weeks/months
- Made a total of 1,052
- $1.86 Cost per pasty last year; $1.70 this year

- $6,828 could be the profit if all are sold

Financial Secretary: John Kukalis
- Working through the affiliate program for those who haven't been involved or paying their dues for the past two years

Knight of the Month: Dan Kegeff for all his help with Pasty making
Family of the Month: Patricia Laws and family for their support of our Pasties
Closing Prayer: Andy Weisel
Meeting Closed: 7:55 pm
Respectfully submitted by Recorder Br. Paul X. Cassar
